

CHARTER OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL, AND GOVERNANCE STEERING (“ESG”) COMMITTEE

Adopted Jan 01, 2019

Purpose

The purpose of the Environmental, Social and Governance Steering Committee (the “ESG Committee”) of AI Venturetech Inc. (the “Company”) is to support the Company’s on-going commitment to environmental, health and safety, corporate social responsibility, corporate governance, sustainability, and other public policy matters relevant to the Company (collectively, “ESG Matters”).

The ESG Committee is a cross-functional senior management committee of the Company. It will assist the CEO of the Company in (a) setting general strategy relating to ESG Matters, (b) developing, implementing, and monitoring initiatives and policies based on that strategy, (c) overseeing communications with employees, investors and stakeholders with respect to ESG Matters, and (d) monitoring and assessing developments relating to, and improving the Company’s understanding of ESG Matters.

Membership

The Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) will approve the members of the ESG Committee. The ESG Committee will include officers and employees the CEO deems appropriate, taking into account such employee’s expertise in relevant and varied disciplines, including environmental, health and safety, security, operations, design & construction, legal, investor relations, government affairs, corporate governance, finance, human resources and communications.

Meetings

The ESG Committee shall meet as often as it determines necessary or appropriate to meet its objectives, but no less frequent than quarterly.

The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the Committee meetings.

The ESG Committee may ask other officers and employees of the Company to attend meetings to provide pertinent information as requested.

ESG Committee Members may participate in meetings through telephone conference or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

The Chair of the ESG Committee, or his or her designee, is responsible for scheduling and setting the meeting agendas. The Company’s CEO will serve as Chair of the ESG Committee, and the Company’s COO will chair those meetings where the CEO cannot attend.

The Chairperson will facilitate the making of regular reports to the Board of Directors.

Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the ESG Committee shall be as follows:

Assist the CEO in setting the Company's general strategy with respect to ESG Matters, and to consider and recommend policies, practices, and disclosures that conform with the strategy;

To advise the Company's CFO in connection with the reporting and disclosures on ESG Matters made in compliance with securities laws;

To advise the COO regarding reporting requirements pursuant to 40 CFR Part 48.

To assist the CEO in overseeing internal and external communications regarding the Company's position or approach to ESG Matters;

To consider and bring to the attention of the CEO, and Board as appropriate, current and emerging ESG Matters that may affect the business, operations, performance or public image of the Company or are otherwise pertinent to the Company and its stakeholders, and to make recommendations on how the Company's policies, practices and disclosures can adjust to or address current

To make periodic visits, as individual members or as a Committee, to operating locations in order to become familiar with the nature of the operations and review relevant objectives, procedures and performance with respect to ESG Matters;

To put systems in place, as deemed necessary and appropriate, to monitor ESG Matters;

To advise the CEO on stockholder proposals and other significant stakeholder concerns relating to ESG Matters;

To review and assess this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes for approval; and

To perform such other duties, tasks, and responsibilities relevant to the purpose of the ESG Committee as may from time to time be designated by the CEO.

Reporting and Delegation

The CEO will report to the Board of Directors on ESG Matters in general and the activities of the ESG Committee in particular.

The ESG Committee may delegate all or a portion of its duties and responsibilities to one or more subcommittees of the ESG Committee and has authority to retain outside advisors as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities as approved by the committee Chair.
